Dear Craft/Commercial Vendors,

The annual Aurora's Patriotic Day festivities are to be held Wednesday July 3, 2024. This one day for our vendors to display their talents and wares will be filled with traditions. Individuals and families can enjoy live music, kids' activities, medallion hunt, corn hole tournament, car show, parade, food vendors, and craft/commercial vendors like you, additionally ending the night with magnificent fireworks show. Currently, we are seeking craft/commercial vendors to help ensure this event continues with its amazing tradition!

If you are interested in participating, vendor hours are 11-5pm, and the following are our vendor requirements. All unauthorized vendors will be asked to leave and/or be visited by the East Range Police Department.

All craft/commercial vendors must submit the following:

1. Your fully completed and signed application.
2. $25 per 8' long table (2 table limit)
3. MN Revenue ST19 Operator Certificate of Compliance (sales tax).

*Please note, selling of alcohol, silly string, or weapons is strictly prohibited.

*Vendors will be notified of set-up times and must set-up within their assigned location.
